Christmas 2013

We hear it every year but it never gets old, The birth of Jesus is the story that's told.

Of all the holidays throughout the year, This one brings wishes of goodwill and cheer.

So let's not be bashful to proclaim our faith, The twenty-fifth of December, that's a special date!

> Jesus died for me, and also for you ... What a wonderful, unselfish thing to do!

So say it from the heart when you say it anew.. "Merry Christmas to All, many Blessings to you!"

Have a Happy and Healthy 'Holy-day'!
